

Webinar: BIA Notice of Funding Opportunity (NOFO)

Presented by the Institute for Tribal Environmental Professionals (ITEP) Climate Change Program

Date: Tuesday, March 2nd

Time: 10:00am (Hawaii), 11:00am (Alaska), 12:00pm (Pacific), 1:00pm (Mountain), 2:00pm (Central), 3:00pm (Eastern)

This webinar is an installment in the Topics in Climate Change Adaptation Planning webinar series which are available at: <http://nau.edu/tribalclimatechange> under the Trainings and Events tab.

The Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) has announced the availability of funding through the Tribal Climate Resilience Program and please click here for more information. Proposals are due Friday, April 23, 2021.

The Tribal Climate Resilience Program supports tribes preparing for climate change that impacts tribal treaty and trust resources, economies, infrastructure, and human health and safety. The Program will also provide funding for projects that support tribal resilience and ocean and coastal management planning.

Presenters:

ITEP is honored to host the BIA for this webinar which will provide information about available funding for Tribal activities that support Tribal climate adaptation and resilience planning, ocean and coastal management planning, and relocation, managed retreat, or protect-in-place planning and design activities for coastal and riverine communities. Please join us to learn more about this funding opportunity. There will be time to ask BIA any questions which may support your proposal. Our presenters will be:

- Rachael Novak, Acting Tribal Climate Resilience Program Coordinator, BIA
- Alyssa Samoy, Natural Resources Specialist, BIA
- Jo Ann Metcalfe, Certified Grants Specialist - U.S. Department of the Interior, Indian Affairs

To register: There is no cost to attend the webinar, however advance registration is required. Please use this link to register for the webinar:
